

Do you employ peers?

5 Great Reasons to Become an Organizational Member at PeerLeadershipCenter.org

The Peer Leadership Center is a central hub where peer specialists and peer supporters can search for jobs, take continuing education courses, network with colleagues, discover community resources, and learn about training opportunities. The Center is dedicated to sharing ALL resources available to help peer specialists and peer supporters in their paid or volunteer work.

Benefits to Your Organization

1

FREE Job Postings to Target Audience

3,000 plus members and over half are trained peer specialists, so your job posting is getting directly to the people in the U.S. most qualified for the job!

2

FREE Promotion of Your Organization's Services and Resources

Any visitor to PeerLeadershipCenter.org can, with a simple click, access our database to search for resources by name, geography, or type of service. Premium placement and/or logo listings available for nominal fee.

3

FREE Webinars and Resources for Peer Employer Organizations

In August we launched a series of free webinars to help organizations better navigate challenges like supervision, staff burnout, and much more!

4

Connect with and Learn from Other Organizations Employing Peers

Stay abreast of changes, new innovations, and challenges in/facing this emerging workforce movement through news updates and informational webinars by experts and fellow organizational member—like yours!

5

Bulk Discounts on Premium Trainings and Support Group Memberships

Organizational members can purchase discounted bulk packages for their staff to attend premium continuing education courses and/or support groups for peers in the workforce—because peer providers need support too!
